Signalling Gratitude

A grateful nation rejoiced Tuesday as the 52 hostages held in Iran for 444 days were released. Andover firefighters joined in the grateful, joyous feeling of the nation ringing the historic firebell in front of the public safety center on Main Street and raising the flag to the top, as the announcement came that the returnees had left Iranian air space en route to Algiers. Firefighter Francis Gallant began the bell ringing, marking the first time the signal has been sounded in many years. The bell, installed as a memorial at the station, once sounded alarms and emergencies in Andover. Its pealing on Tuesday was one of joy, rather than alarm.

Selectmen To Dump The Tapes

Tapes—the instrument of former president Richard M. Nixon's downfall—came up for discussion among the selectmen recently, as they decided to keep tapes of their meetings on hand for no more than six months.

The selectmen record each of their meetings, and the tapes are available to the public. In the past, tapes of regular meetings have been kept for one year, and of conference sessions, for two years, according to Selectman Susan Poore.

But Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark explained that the tapes have been at times "misused," and selectmen's comments "lifted out of context."

The manager agreed with Poore that the tapes "serve some value," but added that they are "not an official record, and not completely clear."

"Is the value they serve worth the cost of their being used mischievously at times?" Clark asked the board. "If not, then it is ill-advised to keep them for longer than necessary."

While Chairman James Abramson said that he favored keeping the tapes for "the smallest amount of time possible." Selectman Jerry Silverman moved that the tapes be kept for six months. Silverman's motion was approved by the board.

The chairman suggested that if that decision proves unsatisfactory, the board will take the matter up again. "Let's see what happens," Abramson said.

The selectmen's brief discussion of their tapes prompted at least one joking reference to Rosemary Woods — Nixon's faithful secretary who took the rap for an 18-minute gap on one of the president's famous tapes.

Taylor Forum Speaker

Friday, Jan. 23, at 8 p.m., Phillips Academy's Friday Forum will present a discussion of new approaches to justice and rehabilitation for juvenile offenders, led by Julie Taylor of the Harvard Law School's Center for Criminal Justice. Miss Taylor will speak on alternatives to jail for convicted juveniles, and on recent efforts in Massachusetts and elsewhere to resolve conflicting claims: the community's need for order and safety and the young offender's need for rehabilitation.

Julie Taylor holds a masters degree in clinical psychology, having worked with Urie Bronfenbrenner on cross cultural research while studying at Cornell University. She will draw on her experience as director of a three year research project on youth services in two Boston suburbs, as a counselor at psychiatric hospitals and at a half-way house for newly released prisoners.

The public is invited. The forum will be held in Kemper Auditorium, Arts and Communications Center, Chapel Avenue, opposite the Andover Inn.

Reduced Tax Rate Forecast In Manager's Budget

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The town manager last Friday proposed a town budget for Fiscal Year 1982 that represents a five percent increase over last year's budget, but an estimated $1 decrease in next year's tax rate.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark has submitted the budget, to be presented to voters at the annual town meeting, to the selectmen and finance committee for their review.

With town expenses increased by $456,410, or five percent, the budget is within the limitations set by Proposition 2½, Clark emphasized.

To hold down spending, the manager is recommending a sharp cutback in funding for special articles — $400,000, compared to the $800,000 — $1 million typical of past years — and a net reduction of five positions in the town's work force.

In addition to these cuts, increases made in user fees and charges during the past two years and the increased availability of free cash will help hold the increase down to five percent, Clark said.

However, the manager cautioned that his budget is not final, because he is not yet certain of how much state aid will be available to the town next year. Clark's budget is based on the assumption that Andover will receive the same amount of state aid as it did this year, $3 million.

Also uncertain at this point is the total interest income that will be available on the school bond issue for the $11.72 million school building program. That interest will help offset the increase in debt service expenditures, Clark indicated.

The budget, including operating expenses, debt service and special articles, shows town expenses totalling $12,658,508. Expenses for Fiscal Year 1981 totalled $12,202,098.

While the town side of the budget is within the limits of 2½, the school side is not, the manager said.

School Superintendent Dr. Kenneth Seifert has requested an increase of $1,287,900, or eight percent.

However, Clark added that he has "not dealt with the school budget. In the past, I have not made a recommendation on the school costs, and I am not doing so now."

Clark estimates that the town can save $70,000 to $75,000 with the net reduction of five town positions, which represents two percent of the town's full-time labor force.

The manager has recommended the elimination of one full-time dog officer, with part of the officer's duties to be reassigned to a new position within the police department; the elimination of one patrolman and two firefighters approved by town meeting last year; the elimination of two positions in Public Works, and of one part-time position in Central Services.

In addition, the position of part-time plumbing inspector and one part-time clerical position in the town clerk's office will both be increased to full-time positions.

Mitsakos Gets New Pact; Maguire's Not Renewed

By Linda S. Corbett

The school committee Tuesday night offered Asst. Supt. Charles Mitsakos another three-year contract, but elected not to renew that of Business-Personnel Manager Edward Maguire.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said he didn't see how it would be possible, under Prop. 2½ funding and business office reorganization, to keep an 'executive' the level of Maguire. A study of business office functions, with possible reorganization in mind, was voted by the committee two weeks ago. Giving him notice now, Seifert said, allows him an opportunity to seek other employment before his contract runs out the end of June.

Committeeman Joseph Finn reported that the committee had already given Maguire the opportunity to meet with them, in private rather than public session at his request, and had notified him of their intent.

Finn said he felt it is 'in the best interest of the town not to renew' Maguire, and the committee unanimously went along with his motion to that effect.

Seifert said he and Maguire had talked about reorganization in the central office, and anticipate a splitting of the personnel and business functions in the future. He said they might combine school and town personnel under one umbrella.

Such action would reduce the scope of Maguire's job, Seifert said, adding that it would not 'be reasonable to assume that Maguire would receive the same salary ($30,608) as he does now.'

Chairman Elaine Viehmann noted that when the committee decided to create the new job of business-personnel manager more than four years ago, they were aware that meeting both responsibilities might be difficult and that they perhaps had 'idealized' the situation. Now, she said, they feel it's better to go with separate functions. (Seifert noted that combining the personnel and business positions into one had saved them a portion of a salary at the time.)

Colleague Donald Robb agreed that combining the two had created 'an impossible situation,' so they 'weren't getting either.' Particularly in the area of computer installation for financial management, he said, the hadn't been as successful as they had wanted.

The Mitsakos offer, also a unanimous vote by the committee, came with a salary 'to be determined.' He presently earns $35,000.

Viehmann said Mitsakos had received some 'very positive feedback' from the committee in private session with them, and that he had been told the scope of his job would be changed somewhat.

Mitsakos was hired initially to concentrate on curriculum development, she

Lifestyle Program Offered Employees

The Andover Board of Health, in conjunction with the Community Education and Relations Department of the Lawrence General Hospital, is sponsoring an Employee Health Promotion Program for Andover town employees.

The program is free, voluntary, and confidential and includes evaluations of an employee's current health status and risk factors. On the basis of the individual profile, analyzed by computer, the staff will suggest life style changes and attempt to develop a lasting commitment to health and fitness. In addition to minimal pre-program testing, evaluation will be based on a risk factor questionnaire provided by the Lifestyle program of Lawrence General Hospital.

Intervention strategies will be designed to help people alter lifestyles. Seminars on stress management, weight reduction, or hypertension are examples of health education efforts which could encourage individuals to improve their lifestyle with the objectives of reducing health risks.

Andover town employees have been selected as a pilot target group for initial implementation of the program. Possible benefits of reducing lifestyle risks and improving general health might include reduction of health insurance premiums for town employees or reduction of sick time usage.

The program has received the endorsement of Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark, and an orientation session is being planned. Employees of the Department of Community Development and Planning, Andover Council on Aging, and the Memorial Hall Library are being invited to participate in the initial group. If, after evaluation, it's shown that there is significant benefit from the program, plans will be made to expand it to other town departments, the general public, and local industry.

McGovern To Address LWV Session

State Senator Patricia McGovern will be the guest speaker at the Andover League of Women Voters annual winter dinner meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 6:30 p.m. at Backstreet restaurant.

Ms. McGovern serves on the Senate's judiciary, oversight, and public utilities committees. Prior to her recent election to the Senate, Ms. McGovern headed the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice, served on the Governor's Public Safety Council, and was an attorney for the Massachusetts Defenders Committee.

League members and their guests, as well as the general public, are invited to attend. Reservations are required, and may be made by contacting Marilyn Brody, 3 Carriage Hill Road.

Classes At Girls Club

Registration for spring classes at the Lowell Girls Club, 220 Worthen St., Lowell will be held during the weeks of Jan. 19 and 26, Monday thru Friday, 9 to 5, and Tuesday and Thursday evenings until 7:30 p.m.

Class offerings this spring include tennis, horseback riding, professional art and acting lessons, gymnastics, good grooming, home nursing, Red Cross babysitting, skiing, knitting, macrame, yoga, bowling, exercise and swimming as well as cooking, sewing and other classes.

For further information call the Club.

Town House Topics

To Discuss Zoning Changes

The Planning Board will begin discussing a proposed zoning bylaw amendment for multi-family housing at 7:30 Tuesday night at the Essex Street theatre building.

Rhys Kear, director of Community Planning and Development, last week told the planners he would present a proposed amendment at this week's meeting.

Kear and his staff have developed the amendment as a springboard for the planners' discussions, with the help of consultant Phillip Herr. Kear and the consultant have met and discussed the zoning amendment over the telephone several times during recent weeks, Kear said.

The consultant may attend the Tuesday night meeting, Kear added.

Planning Board member David Gravalles last week called the development of a multi-family zoning bylaw amendment the planners' "highest priority" for spring town meeting.

No 'Vale Station This Year

The design of a new fire station/library for Ballardvale is too far in the future to be included on the spring town meeting warrant, the selectmen and town manager agreed last week.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark last year suggested that a new Ballardvale branch library, to replace the branch in the condemned community center building, could be built as part of a new fire station, because a station is also needed in the 'Vale.

While selectmen think the fire station/library complex may be a good idea, they don't see much possibility of funds being available for the project in the near future.

Therefore, it would not be a good idea to allocate funds for planning the project this year, as Ballardvale residents might wish, Selectman Susan Poore said last week. She pointed out that architects' plans could be outdated by the time the project comes to pass, and the planning funds then would be wasted.

"There is enough doubt now over how we're going to pay the rent for the reading room," she added, referring to a temporary reading room that opened in the 'Vale last week. At one time the rented room seemed threatened by the budget crunch of Proposition 2½.

The manager's proposed fiscal year 1982 budget includes funds for renting the reading room at $300 per month.

School Lunch Prices Up Monday

Richard Barron, director of food services for Andover schools, has announced the student reduced school lunches will increase 10¢ on Monday.

Barron said that due to a cutback in federal funding to the state, the local school lunch office has been ordered to increase the reduced school lunch from 10¢ to 20¢. The increase will be effective Monday, Jan. 26.

Tower Committee Named

Four residents have been named to a tower study committee, with the selectmen's approval. The committee will work on a proposed zoning bylaw amendment allowing radio towers and windmills to be built in Andover.

Names to the new committee are Clyde H. Brunquell of Mill Stone Circle, Edward E. Johanson of Rocky Hill Road, John W. Kimball of Prospect Road, and James H. Fisk of High Plain Road.

Working with Rhys Kear, director of Community Development and Planning, the tower committee will study the bylaws developed by other communities, and present a proposed bylaw amendment before the annual town meeting.

Chorus Seeking Members

The North Parrish Choral Society, a regional chorus open to singers throughout the surrounding area, is beginning rehearsals for the spring season. Membership spaces are available in the soprano, tenor and bass sections. The society rehearses on Tuesday evening at Faith Lutheran Church in Andover on Route 28 at 7:40 until 9:30 p.m. A singer should be able to read some music and have some familiarity with vocal scores in order to keep up with the society's varied repertoire. Experience in singing in another chorus would be helpful. There is, however, no audition to become a member.

This season of concerts includes a spring revels with some costumes, madrigals and renaissance skits and dances; a Lenten concert at the Main Street Methodist Church in Nashua, N.H.; and a spring concert in May at the First Congregational Church in Winchester. These last two concerts will include the "Missa Brevis in B" of Mozart, the Lotti, poser, Marie Stultz. This composition, entitled "Song of Jubilation," will be performed by both the treble and senior chorus.

New Hotline For Victims Of Assault

A new service for persons who have been sexually traumatized is being offered, free of charge, through the Women's Resource Center in Lawrence. It is available to women, girls, men and boys for whom assault or abuse has just occurred, happened sometime in the past, or is of long-standing duration. The traumatic event may have been a forcible rape, threat of rape, attempted rape, sexual contact through coercion, sexual harassment or abuse.

This service will make available the options of talking with a trained, sympathetic counselor by phone or in person, as well as the opportunity to participate in a support group with others having undergone similar experiences.

For more information for yourself or someone you know, call our Twenty-Four Hour Hot Line, 685-2480, where all calls are kept confidential.

said, 'and now there are other areas that will have to be emphasized more.'

Mitsakos, who joined the system three years ago, said later that his job had already spread into other areas, such as financial, student housing, and the like.

Robb said the committee had credited Mitsakos with 'outstanding' development of curriculum, and that he deserved the thanks of the school committee and the town for instituting a system to keep them informed on curriculum progress.

He has annually presented a series of curriculum reviews, that are currently being updated.

Seifert noted that a three-year contract 'is saying a great deal,' and that he was 'very pleased that the school committee feels as I do,' about his assistant.

He said Mitsakos is able to handle 'the stresses and strains of public school education...particularly in the central office area,' with 'objectivity and sensitivity.'

In other personnel action, the committee appointed Rita L. Claybrooks of Leominster a foreign language teacher at East Jr. High, on a permanent substitute basis for an 'indefinite time' (she replaces a teacher on childbearing leave of absence), and Marybeth Sullivan of Andover an English teacher at Andover High, also as a permanent sub. She replaces a teacher on medical leave.

Also appointed was Suzanne E. McCarthy of North Andover, a personal care instructional aide at West Elementary.

The committee accepted the resignation of Ronald E. Hancock, second shift junior custodian at West Elementary since last summer, and transferred Kenneth R. McGuire from first shift junior custodian at West Elementary, to maintenance-security worker, systemwide.

Boy Scout Leader Needed

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

We are currently searching for a responsible leader for our scout troop. At the time, we have a temporary scout master, but we need someone who can devote more time to our small troop of 10 scouts. We would like to work hard to make our troop a success. All we ask is your time on Monday nights and an occasional weekend. We think it will be a rewarding job for someone with an interest in scouting. If you would be willing to help, call Don Robb.

League Expresses Thanks

To The Editor Of The Townsman: On behalf of the Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends of the New England Home for Little Wanderers, I would like to thank the people of the Merrimack Valley for being so generous to our "Little Red House" campaign during our recent Holiday season.

We are most grateful to the stores and other businesses that have allowed us to place the Little Red Houses with them and to the people who supported them with donations. It added up to a substantial contribution to the New England Home.

The money collected is used to defray the cost of Holiday gifts that were purchased for the children in the care of the Home. If there is any extra money after these bills are taken care of, the youngsters may enjoy an added treat such as ski or camping trips on school vacation, or some other special outing these children may never have experienced without our help.

We thank one and all who have paused to drop a coin in one of our Little Red Houses.

Thanks For Enrichment

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

As a parent of two children in the Andover public schools, it has recently come to my attention that a Culture Series is being presented to the children in the Andover schools, thereby giving them an opportunity to see live dance, theatre, mime and opera. This series was made possible with the kind cooperation of the Andover Business Community, and I would like to publicly thank them for donating the funds for this series. It is indeed gratifying to see the business community valuing the arts as a necessary part of a good education.

I have done a great deal of reading recently on recent brain research and am firmly convinced that the arts; visual and performing, help to develop awareness and an appreciation for using all our senses, thereby enriching perception, so vital to learning quickly and efficiently. Creativity is not a characteristic only needed for the arts, but a vital ingredient needed for everyone to cope with the problems of a complex society. Yet, we do not encourage training in our schools for this elusive quality. Scratch beneath the surface of many a successful businessman, scientist, engineer and you will find a strong interest in music, theater, photography, painting or sculpture. Many a doctor or lawyer find it most relaxing to spend their free time making jewelry or singing in a chorus.

We are now at a critical point in education. There is a trend to cut "frills" and get back to basic education. I agree that there is a need to teach basic skills, but how is the critical question. We are all very unique individuals with many varied learning styles. For many the road to academic skills is through the arts. Are we ready to cut off this route in the interest of economy? How much better it would be for kids to vent their feelings and frustrations in a creative drama program than to break windows or set fires. Instead of spending money beefing up security, why can't this money be spent on innovative programs in turning this destructive behavior into more constructive creative energy.

I am encouraged by the support of the Andover Business Community in providing this vital enrichment for our children. I would now like to challenge the community at large to continue to build on this base in providing more of this much needed perceptual training in the schools.

Great Books Resumes

Great Books Discussion Group will continue their readings and discussion of "The Individual & Society" with their first meeting of the winter season on Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Hall Library. The selections to be discussed this week are "Disorder & Early Sorrow" and "Felix Krull", both written by Thomas Mann.

The Discussion Group meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Hall Library. All persons interested in reading and discussing some of the great works of literature are cordially invited to join the group at any time. Further information may be obtained by contacting Dorothy Sherrerd, community services librarian.

Speedreading Registrations

Registrations for Sanborn & Simmons' Speed Reading course are now being taken at the circulation desk at Memorial Hall Library. The course will meet for five consecutive Thursday evenings from 7-9 p.m. starting Jan. 29. Frank Caruso will be the instructor and the fee will be $45. Participants are guaranteed to at least double their reading speed.

Selectmen Send Thanks To Sen. Wall

Former state Senator William X. Wall, who was defeated by Patricia McGovern last fall, had Andover on his mind even in the closing days of his term, the town manager told the selectmen recently.

Wall sent Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark information on the implementation of Proposition 2½, to be forwarded to the selectmen.

Selectman Edward Harris last week suggested that the board send a note of thanks to the former senator for his thoughtfulness.

"For a Democrat, he's a nice old guy," Harris commented.

A new addition to the reference collection at Memorial Hall Library, this guidebook gives information on over 100 places to visit and things to do with children in Massachusetts. Prepared mainly for teachers and educators who plan field trips for school-age children, the book is also helpful for parents, group leaders and others involved with programming for adults as well as children. Information includes tour details, group rates, contact persons, hours and directions.

Children's Room News By Bridget Bennett

Leaders of groups working with elementary-school-age children who are looking for field trip ideas are invited to consider a tour of the library. A look at some of the behind-the-scenes operations and a chance to ask questions about working in a library are offered as a means of extending knowledge of the community. Inquiries about planning such tours will be welcomed; just call the Children's Room at 475-6960 to arrange a date.

If you are considering planning a family expedition or trips for groups to go further afield, we also have a variety of books and pamphlets available which will present ideas of places to go and things to do with children. State-wide listings may be found in "Massachusetts Field Trip Guidebook,"

JOYN US

Hi! I'm Laurie. Have you ever noticed those inches creeping up on you? Well, you don't until it's too late. You look in the mirror, hold your breath & say, "Well, I'll diet tomorrow."

Tomorrow comes and goes & before you know it...Bang! You go shopping & the size 7 rack turns into 11's. I stopped feeling sorry for myself & decided to do something about it. I then went to Joy. They gave me the incentive I needed. In a short time I was back in my 7's, not only looking but feeling great.

Watching yourself improve is great but even better when people notice.

Thank You,
Laurie Boucher

• Concert

Hammond Castle Museum will open its 1981 concert series with the return of the popular Kithara Duo on Sunday, Feb. 1 at 5:30 p.m.

The Kithara Duo, who have been playing together in the Boston area since 1977, are Faye Seeman, harpist, and Matthew Marvuglio, flutist. Their repertoire consists of original compositions and transcriptions from the baroque period to the present.

Fay Seeman, harpist, performs extensively as a soloist and with the Kithara Duo. She has a Bachelor's degree in performance from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Eastern Michigan University and a Master's degree from Boston University. She also spent summers in the Harp Studies Program at Tanglewood and Interlocken National Music Camp in Michigan.

Brian G. Smiar, whose work as a director has delighted Andover audiences in the past two seasons, is an actor, director, designer and educator who is in demand. He can currently be seen as Harry Bales, a merchant seaman in love with a barmaid in the Merrimack Regional Theatre's production of Edward J. Moore's "The Sea Horse."

Aside from being a member of the three major actors unions, Actors Equity Association, Screen Actors Guild and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, Brian is a free lance director, designer and a faculty member at both Emerson College and the University of Lowell.

The versatile Smiar, who resides in Amesbury, has appeared at area theatres in such roles as Oscar in "The Odd Couple," Donny in "American Buffalo" and Bill Walker in "Major Barbara." Within the past two years audiences in Andover have been treated to productions of "Carousel," "The Fantasticks" and "Bye-Bye-Birdie," all under Brian's direction. As founder of the Summer Theatre at Groton, he appeared in productions of "The Sea Horse," "A Long Day's Journey Into Night" and "The Homecoming."

Actors and directors with Brian's experience and know-how are generally found in the major theatre communities of New York and Los Angeles. When presented with the prospect of working in New York City though, Brian is quick to reply, "I don't want to work in New York for a number of reasons. His first reason is that he is happily married, lives in the woods and loves it."

Secondly, Brian feels that "New York is the dirtiest city I've ever seen and the theatre is much too commercial. Regional theatres, particularly a resident professional theatre like MRT, is much more serious, more expressive. It's doing

Brian G. Smiar will continue to create theatre throughout Eastern Massachusetts, but he can be seen now through Feb. 1 in a very special love story at the Merrimack Regional Theatre called "The Sea Horse." For tickets and information, phone the Box Office at 454-3926. MRT is the non-profit, resident professional theatre serving the Merrimack Valley located on Broadway and Wilder Street, Lowell, MA.

Pianist Appears At P.A.

The Music Department of Phillips Academy will present Joan Rowland, pianist, in a recital Sunday, Jan. 25, at 3 p.m. in the Addison Gallery.

Born in Toronto of Canadian nationality, Rowland began playing the piano at the age of four. At the age of nine she gave her first solo recital in Toronto, and in the same year made her orchestral debut with the Buffalo Civic Orchestra. At 11 she appeared as soloist with the Toronto Symphony, immediately followed by appearances with a large number of other symphony orchestras.

In New York, she was a pupil of Edward Steuermann of the Juilliard School of Music, and at 18 she made her recital debut at Town Hall. She then toured 36 states and eastern and western Canada as a soloist and as a member of various chamber

Annual Soccer Meeting

The Andover Soccer Association will hold its annual general meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 27, in the conference room of Memorial Hall Library, starting at 7:30 p.m. Election of directors will take place at this meeting. The nominees for the vacant positions are: Ed Bilger, Ed Buscema, Chuck DeLeire, Bunky Desruisseau, Mac Emshwiller, Don Hevehan, She Livermore, Frank Murphy and Mo Murphy.

Following the election of new directors, proposed revisions to the by-laws of the association will be discussed and voted upon. A report on the upcoming Spring program will also be given.

All members of the association are encouraged to attend this important meeting. Other interested individuals are welcome to be present.

music ensembles, notably the Reginald Kell Players.

Extending her activities to Europe, she was a first prize winner at the International Festival of Modern Music in Darmstadt and she won a first prize at the Mozarteum Piano Competition in Salzburg. Returning to Canada, she was chosen a 'National Auditions' winner by the C.B.C. Her various appearances with the Toronto Symphony now total 16.

With Karl Ulrich Schnabel, she has recently formed a piano duo specializing in concerts of original compositions for one piano four-hands. She has also been conducting workshops and master classes throughout Ontario and California. She holds a B.A. in English literature from Columbia University, and is married to magazine executive John Thornton of New York. They have four children.

The Sunday concert includes works by Beethoven, Debussy, Chopin and Schu-

Author To Speak

Jane Holtz Kay, author of the newly published book, "Lost Boston," will present an illustrated lecture with the same title, Sunday, Jan. 25, at The Museum of Our National Heritage, 33 Marrett Road, Lexington.

The public is welcome to attend the lecture which is scheduled at 3 o'clock. Admission is free.

Kay will present a biography of one of America's oldest and greatest cities using many of the rare photographs and prints from her book. She will also show contemporary views of some of the "lost" sites and compare them with views of the same sites in past centuries.

Kay has lived in Boston all her life and has written about the city and its architecture for two decades. Now architecture critic for the Nation, her writings on the built environment have also appeared in the Saturday Review, Smithsonian, Columbia Journalism Review and Progressive Architecture.

Get thin... Stay thin!

Here's a New Year's resolution you can live with...

At the Diet Center we offer a nutritionally sound weight loss program that results in a predictable reduction of 17 to 25 pounds in just six weeks. If necessary, you can sustain that weight loss until you have lost 50, 75 or even 100 pounds and more. Unlike many diet programs being marketed today, the Diet Center relies on sound nutrition and daily support of a counselor who cares. She cares because she's been there. She has overcome her own weight problem the Diet Center way. In addition, she will help you learn the sound, wholesome eating habits that will help you stay thin for the rest of your life.

Creative Arts At Bradford

Bradford College opens its spring season Creative Arts Series Jan. 30 with a performance by the Halcyon Dance Company at 8:15 p.m. in Denworth Hall.

The program includes expressions of the modern dance technique combined with the richness of blues, the soul of gospel and the electricity of jazz.

The Boston-based group is led by artistic directors, Alan Ford and Memory Birch, former members of the Expansions Dance Company. Ford, who currently teaches jazz at Wellesley College and the Joy of Movement Center in Cambridge, was the recipient of the 1979-80 Alvin Ailey American Dance Center Scholarship.

Concerts for the 1980-81 season include performances at the Metropolitan Center for Performing Arts, the Boston 350 Jubilee and participation in the Prison Arts program.

CPR Course

Registrations are being taken for the Feb. 3 Heart Saver course at the Lawrence General Hospital (LGH) sponsored by the LGH Aid Association. It is open to anyone interested in learning about heart problems and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

The February class is from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. (The next evening program will be March 31 from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.) Cost is $1. Classes are limited to 25-30 people. To register, call the LGH education department.

The program includes cardiac risk factors, warning symptoms of heart attacks and stroke and a CPR skill.

School Damage Reduced

Vandalism in the schools is down dramatically from last year, and Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert Tuesday night applauded the efforts of students and staff across the system.

Last school year, he said, an estimated $50,000 worth of damage was done in Andover schools, or approximately $25,000 in the first six months of the year. So far this year, he said, they've found about $7,000 worth of vandal damage.

He said that the improvement in both junior high schools is particularly worthy of note, and added that last year, the girls bathrooms at East Jr. High were 'the worst.'

He said he was 'amazed at the change that had taken place,' when he took a tour of the buildings before Christmas vacation.

Of the estimated $7,000 in damage this year, Seifert said about $3,000 has been in the bathrooms at Andover High, though he added that some of the damage may have been done in the past and just discovered. The other $4,000 is in glass.

Seifert noted that of the 1400 students at the high school, probably only 25 to 30 were responsible for the damage.

More than 95 percent have done a fine job,' he added, 'and they don't get enough ink (in the press).'

'No doubt the best students in the high school are the best I've ever seen,' he went on, 'and on the flip side, the worst students in the high school are the worst I've ever seen.'

Seifert said he wanted a shot in the arm for the students who have 'clearly gotten with it,' and concluded that he is 'very, very pleased and proud of their effort.' A newsletter from SAC (the Student Advisory Council at Andover High) will also be

Lane Is Honored By Sisters

In a surprise presentation, William L. Lane, director of Bon Secours Hospital, was honored by the Sisters of Bon Secours for his ten years of administrative service at Bon Secours Hospital.

Lane was commended by the Provincial of the Sisters of Bon Secours, Sister Justine Cyr, C.B.S., in a letter presented by Sister Nancy Glynn, C.B.S., trustee, at the hospital's annual meeting.

Sister Nancy presented Lane with a plaque and also said, "The remarkable progress of Bon Secours Hospital in the past decade is due in large measure to the leadership and administration of William Lane and the Sisters of Bon Secours are very grateful."

Judge John E. Fenton, Jr., president of the hospital, spoke briefly following the presentation and added, "Bill Lane is known nationwide for his capabilities in health care administration and is widely respected by his professional colleagues. All those associated with Bon Secours Hospital are extremely grateful for his talents and hard efforts in behalf of our institution and the community served."

Dr. Peter S. Bradshaw of Andover, an internist who practices at St. John's Hospital, Lowell, will be the featured speaker Monday, Jan. 26, for the third in a series of free monthly health programs sponsored by St. John's as a community service.

Dr. Bradshaw's topic will be "Cancer—Are You At Risk?" The program is scheduled from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Nurses Residence Auditorium, directly across from the hospital.

Dr. Bradshaw, who resides at Sioux Circle with his wife and family, is a graduate of Georgetown University, Class of 1973. He served his internship and residency at Rochester General Hospital, Rochester, N.Y., and was an instructor in medicine at the University of Rochester's School of Medicine before starting his practice in Lowell.

The Division of Continuing Education at Merrimack College is presenting Update 1981, a series of professional seminars for accountants Update 1981 seminars on Jan. 24 and Feb. 7 are intensive programs presenting current, useful information to increase the professional accountant's competence and to enhance a sound business perspective.

Each Update 1981 seminar will provide eight units of Continuing Professional Education (CPE's) toward the 40 units required for permit renewal in July of 1981.

Complete information and registration materials may be obtained by contacting the Division of Continuing Education, 209 O'Reilly Hall, Merrimack College, North Andover.

West Is Dressed!

What's in at West Junior High? Neckties! School team members have been wearing neckties on the day of a game and the idea is catching on for all students. So, in addition to showing school spirit, WJH is also sporting the best-dressed team! Photos clockwise from upper left: Billy Vickers and John Leahy are dressed to kill for their afternoon basketball game; Scott Zimmerman and John Duffy arrive all tied up; freshmen Bob Rikeman and Peter Comeau enjoy lunch; and looking good is tri-captain Mike Gibson.

WESTern Roundup

By Mary Driscoll and Kathy Mulvey

The WJH girls' basketball team challenged its rivals at East last Friday, Jan. 16, losing by a score of 27-14. West had an early 4-0 lead, but relinquished it to fall behind, 7-4, at halftime. However, the team played a good game; Mary Oppel leading the scoring with eight points.

The eighth grade basketball team was on the court Jan. 13 when it challenged Methuen's East School. The team used their talents and added another win to their excellent winning streak with a 39-38 victory.

The WJH freshman team traveled to Dracut on Jan. 13 only to encounter an upsetting defeat by their freshman team. Their 36-42 loss was followed by an exciting challenge by Central Catholic High School on Jan. 16 when West held the victory at the end. Charlie Ziegenbien excelled in his defensive talents during these two games.

A foreign exchange program is being offered to all interested freshman French students. The students involved in the program coordinated by Miss Lori Humlak, will host a student from France at their home for two weeks and in turn, the opportunity to visit France and live with their hosted student's family for the following two weeks.

On the morning of Jan. 19, the class officers gathered at the flag pole to represent their classmates in the raising of the American flag in honor of the American hostages.

Youngsters Illustrate Friendship

Contest Winner

Joanne Donnelly, 8 Carisbrooke St., sixth grader at St. Augustine's School, stands with her winning poster in display last week at Andover Savings Bank. The poster contest was designed to have the youngsters display their ideas of friendship to the elderly.

The winning posters of 75 created by students at St. Augustine's School have been on display at the Andover Savings Bank, in connection with the work of the Andover Friendly Visitor Program.

The purpose of the contest, open to students from grade 4 through grade 8, was to permit each student to illustrate his/her own idea of demonstrating friendship to the elderly. The best poster in the contest was selected and was the creation of Joanne Donnelly, 8 Carisbrooke St.

In addition, the best poster in each grade was also awarded a prize. Winners were: Grade 4 - Jennie Borden, 40 Ballardvale Road; Grade 5 - Katie Hollenbeck, 276 Highland Road; Grade 6 - Elizabeth Melhan, 18 Ballardvale Road; Grade 7 - Chrissy Cavallaro; Grade 8 - Ellen Salvi.

Dance Group Auditions Scheduled

The second of the 1981 auditions for the Merrimack Valley Dance Collaborative, Inc., a non-profit educational corporation, will be held on Monday, Feb. 9, at the Dance Collaboratives Headquarters, 477 Essex St., Lawrence, at 7:30 p.m.

Dancers, male and female, ages 10 through adult, interested in elevating their level of dance and enjoy performing, should register.

The dance company is divided into two main groups. Senior members, those 14 years of age and older with at least three years of extensive dance training, and junior members, those 14 and younger with at least three years of dance training.

Each of the two main groups have subgroups of apprentices who are dancers who need work on one or more dance subjects or stage presence, etc.

Dancers are asked to come to the audition with a picture and resume of themselves.

Teen Series For Parents

"Parents of Teens. These Troubled Times," is a special 10-week lecture and discussion series being offered by the Department of Community Services this winter.

The program will touch on those issues of topical interest to Andover parents: subjects that parents often have no working understanding. Included in the course will be discussions on drug use, alcohol use, peer group pressure, delinquency, parental control, sexuality, and school life. Special consideration will be given to the role of the school and family.

The instructor, Howard Sherman, is the former director of the Andover Peer Counselor Project. Sherman is currently a psychiatric social worker, now in private clinical practice, who specializes in adolescents. He also is well published and serves as a consultant to many public schools in the counseling area. The course is offered on Monday nights at 7:30 p.m. at the Andover High School. Registration, through the Department of Community Services, begins on Wednesday, Feb. 11, 7 p.m. at the East Jr., West Jr., and Sanborn schools.

Help Needed For DCS Registration

The Department of Community Services is looking for volunteers to help out with the many tasks involved with registration which will be held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 11. Volunteers are needed at the three school locations (East Jr., West Jr., and Sanborn); volunteers may register at 7 p.m.

Attend a quick informative meeting at the West Jr. High prior to the evening registration; the procedure is not difficult.

Anyone wishing to volunteer should contact the department at the Doherty School, 36 Bartlet St., as soon as possible.

Peer Pressure Topic For Sixth Graders

The Andover High School Peer Counseling Project, in coordination with the elementary school health educators, will be conducting a series of three workshops in the sixth grade classrooms entitled "Peer Pressure Groups."

These workshops will be facilitated by trained high school peer counselors and will deal with the transition into seventh grade, drinking, smoking, dating and other issues of concern to sixth graders.

This program was instituted last year.

The peer counselors will be trained by Brenda O'Brian, health education coordinator, and Miriam Weisberg, director of outreach services for the Peer Counseling Project.

Newcomers To Learn About CPR

A unique opportunity to learn cardiopulmonary resuscitation is being offered to the members of the Andover-North Andover Newcomers Club on Tuesday, Feb. 3.

From 9 a.m. until 1 p.m., the group will meet at Lawrence General Hospital to participate in this life saving course and, upon completion, certificates will be given.

Space is limited, so reserve early. As a reminder, anyone with heart or breathing difficulty, or with a cold (or similar illness which can be transmitted) is asked not to attend.

For reservations, call Jane Gefvert in Andover.

A special treat is awaiting the members of the Andover-North Andover Club on Friday, Feb. 6.

When the "Fun in the Hub" bus arrives in Boston at Channel 7, the group will be the participating audience at Ted O'Brien's Weekday Show.

In order to accomodate the 10-11 a.m.

program the bus will board at 8:30 a.m. and leave from Shawsheen Plaza at 8:45 a.m.

Following the show, there is time for lunch and/or shopping at Quincy Market before returning to Andover by 3 p.m.

The deadline for reservations is Monday, Jan. 26. Contact Colleen Georgian, Andover.

Annual Meeting Of Church

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 28, South Church in Andover will hold its 270th annual meeting.

A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the meeting will be called to order by moderator P. Fred Gridley at 7:45 p.m. In addition to the election of officers and committee members, discussion of the annual reports of boards, committees and organizations of the church and the adoption of an operating and outreach budget for 1981, there will be a special presentation of the highlights of 1980 and a look at the coming year. All members and friends of South Church are welcome to attend.

Film Series At Church

A film series on the family will be shown at Free Christian Church, 31 Elm St., Andover, featuring family expert, James C. Dobson, Ph. D., on Wednesday evenings starting Feb. 4 at 7:30. Entitled "Focus on the Family," the series presents seven of Dobson's most popular presentations, all of which were filmed live at family life seminars.

Titles of the films are: "The Strong-Willed Child," "Shaping the Will Without Breaking the Spirit," "Christian Fathering," "Preparing for Adolescence, Part 1: The Origins of Self-Doubt, Part 2: Peer Pressure and Sexuality," "What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew About Women, Part 1: the Lonely Housewife, Part 2: Money, Sex and Children."

The films are about one hour in length. Refreshments and discussion will follow each film. The public is invited.

James C. Dobson, Ph.D. is associate clinical professor of pediatrics at the University of Southern California School of Medicine. He is a licensed psychologist in the state of California, a husband, father, and author of several best-selling

February meeting will return to the "third Tuesday" schedule.

On Jan. 29 there will be an outreach worker at The Haven from the Greater Lawrence Community Action Council to interview Andover residents who need assistance with their energy bills.
Applicants will be seen on that day by appointment only. Call The Haven for your appointment and for instructions on information you will need to have with you.
Fuel bills are high, but help is available.
Call the center today.

Registration for the new series of classes to be held at The Haven will be the week of Feb. 11. Senior citizens are accorded the privilege of registering by phone. Just call the center at 470-0870.
Classes are scheduled to begin the week of Feb. 23.

The next session of the mini-clinic will be Jan. 27 from 2 to 4 p.m. at Frye Circle.
Appointments may be made by calling the Andover Health Department at 475-7820.

February birthday celebrants will have their day at the senior center Feb. 4 at 2 p.m. The Haven Singers will entertain.
The singers, under the direction of Helen Robinson, will also be appearing at the Academy Manor Nursing Home on Wednesday, Jan. 28.

A Valentine Party noon dinner will be held at The Haven, Thursday, Feb. 12, and will feature delicious chicken. Tickets are available now for $3 each. Don't wait. Get your tickets now.

Andover residents over 60 are eligible for free income tax assistance starting Jan. 26, by appointment. Trained tax assistants, taught IRS and the State Corporation on Taxation, and tested by them, are available for this service. When you come for your appointment, you should be sure to bring a copy of last year's return plus this year's tax forms you received in the mail.

Thursday, Feb. 4, at 2 p.m., Marilyn Pratt, who teaches quilting at The Haven, will present, with some of her students, a demonstration of quilt making, as well as an exhibit of quilts. She will also present a slide show on quilting.

School Programs Need Outside Funding

By Linda S. Corbett

The legal questions surrounding 'user fees' for some non-academic school activities are still being researched, but School Chairman Elaine Viehmann put the public on notice Tuesday night that 'some sources of outside funding' may be necessary to keep programs going in the future.

Responding to a request made at the last school committee meeting, the administration presented the total and per pupil costs of some music and athletic activities. The data presumably will be considered by the committee in coming weeks, as it wrestles with the task of cutting three quarters of a million dollars from next year's budget.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert re-emphasized Tuesday night that those major cuts from his original 8 percent increase budget are necessary to get down to level-funding, in response to Prop. 2½.

Instrumental music, Seifert said, is costing the town $72,556.11 this year for 736 participants, or $98.58 per pupil, while the high school marching band is costing $6,186.13 for 130 pupils, or $47.59 per.

Theatre arts expenses for the current year are $6,090.31, he said, but the performances brought in $6080.15, for a net cost to the system of $829.16 for 100 participants, or $8.29 each.

He divided the costs of school-sponsored sports, those outside the regular physical education program, by school and by season. At the high school, the fall costs were as follows: varsity football at $22,764, with gate receipts of $5179 and 60 participants, for a net per pupil cost of $293; JV football, $7954, 32 participants, $249 per; boys varsity soccer, $3595, 23 participants, $156 per; JV soccer, $1994, 20 participants, $100 per; girls varsity soccer, $2388, 21 participants, $114 per; girls JV soccer, $1699, 21 participants, $81 per; girls swimming, $1698, 30 participants, $57 per; girls volleyball, $2442, 18 participants, $136 per; coed cross country, $1479, 30 participants, $49 per; cheerleaders, $1583, 48 participants, $33 per; boys varsity field hockey, $3588, 14 participants, $256; JV field hockey, $3153, 20 participants, $158 per.

Winter sports at the high school: boys basketball, $6472, with $2985 in gate receipts, for a net cost of $3487, or $166 each for 18 participants; boys JV basketball, $2398, 15 participants, $160 per; sophomore basketball, $1884, 18 participants, $105 per; girls varsity basketball, $4156, 15 participants, $277; girls JV basketball, $2191, 15 participants, $146 per; girls gymnastics, $3576, 14 participants, $255 per; boys gymnastics, $3229, 22 participants, $147 per; indoor coed track, $5924, 85 participants, $70 per; boys wrestling, $2802, 12 participants, $234 per; coed skiing, $3562, 33 participants, $108 per; boys hockey, $7629, 20 participants, $381 per; boys JV hockey, $3489, 20 participants, $174 per.

Spring sports at the high school: boys varsity baseball, $4654, 17 participants, $274 per; boys JV baseball, $3181, 15 participants, $212 per; girls varsity softball, $2789, 11 participants, $254; girls JV softball, $1299, 16 participants, $81 per; coed track, $13,145, 170 participants, $77 per; boys tennis, $1711, 14 participants, $122 per; girls tennis, $1330, 13 participants, $102 per; boys golf, $1530, nine participants, $170 per.

Junior High sports in the fall (East and West Jr. Highs combined): 9th grade football, $9032, 65 participants, $139 per; 8th grade football, $5948, 59 participants, $101; boys 9th grade soccer, $3743, 36 participants, $104 per; boys 8th grade soccer, $2825, 42 participants, $67 per; girls field hockey, $3450, 49 participants, $70 per; cheerleaders, $2345, 80 participants, $29 per.

Winter sports, junior high: boys 9th grade basketball, $4100, 24 participants, $171; boys 8th grade basketball, $3893, 27 participants, $144 per; girls basketball, $3259, 34 participants, $93; boys gymnastics, $1063, 40 participants, $27; girls gymnastics, $2126, 40 participants, $53 per.

Spring sports, junior high: boys 9th grade baseball, $3871, 34 participants, $114 per; boys 8th grade baseball, $3793, 36 participants, $105 per; girls softball, $3338, 42 participants, $79 per and coed track, $7782, 158 participants, $49 per.

Seifert concluded that one concern in asking parents to pick up the tab on activities, is that 'those who have money won't have to suffer.' He said they simply pay the price, or put their youngsters in private school where the activities are available to them.

Those who don't have money, he said, are the ones who will suffer because their youngsters would have to do without.

'Clearly,' he said, 'that runs against the philosophy of public school education.'

Special Articles Face 'Lion's Share' Of Budget Cuts

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Working under Proposition 2½, the town manager has come up with a town budget that is up five percent over last year's budget — an increase of $456,410 in total expenses.

Faced with double-digit inflation and rising salaries for town employees, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark cut the allocation for capital spending, or special articles, to half its usual size to help accomplish the five percent increase.

Clark has also recommended that a net reduction of five positions be made from the town labor force, for an estimated savings of $70,000 - $75,000.

But the 'lion's share' of the budget reductions will come from special articles, to be presented to voters at the 1981 annual town meeting. The manager is recommending that $400,000 be budgeted for special articles, in past years, $800,000 to $1 million has been earmarked for special articles.

That recommendation will force town officials to grapple with a long list of capital improvements that are needed in Andover, to decide what will be done and what won't — what can wait for another year or two, and what can't.

The officials must trim an estimated $400,000 from that list to meet the manager's recommended $400,000, according to Tony Torrisi, director of budget and finance. The list of possible capital improvements that they will review and assign priorities to during the next few weeks totals an estimated $800,000, and includes:

Painting town hall and the Essex Street theatre building, at an estimated $12,000.

Making improvements to buildings in Spring Grove Cemetery, $100,000.

Funding the remaining $75,000 for the purchase of a new fire truck (the first $45,000 was appropriated last year).

Making improvements to Recreation Park, $60,000.

Working on the Shawshoon playing fields.

$5,000.

Replacing one pump at the Riverina Road pumping station, $45,000.

Acquiring part of Essex Street that now belongs to the MBTA, $5,000.

Study of a new land fill, $25,000.

Providing gas service to the converted Doherty Junior High School, $54,000.

Making improvements to the public works maintenance garage, $75,000.

Beginning the second year of funding the town's pension system, $100,000.

The list of possible special articles also includes several projects for which cost estimates have not yet been reached.

Moving school administration offices to Draper Hall at Phillips Academy during the construction phase of the school building program, at an estimated $15,000 to $100,000.

Repaving Andover Street, an estimated $100,000.

Implementing a central maintenance system for the town and schools.

Constructing a water main from Woburn Street to and along Dundas Avenue; this project would eventually be funded by betterments, but it would require the town to provide the money "up front" at a cost "far exceeding the $400,000 allocated for special articles," the manager explained.

As the selectmen, finance committee and town and school administrators set priorities on these articles, some decisions will be more difficult than others. Clark noted: "A fire truck is obviously more important than Rec Park," he said.

Among the manager's highest priorities is buying a new pump for the Riverina Road pumping station, because he expects a long delay between the time the pump is ordered and finally received.

"Our equipment is very old," he explained. If a pump breaks down with no replacement on hand, the town could be responsible for "property damage, and violation of water pollution controls," Clark said.

Dashing Through The Snow

Last week's snowfall brought clear skies and warmer weather making it a perfect weekend to celebrate winter in New England. Mrs. Carol Garcia and her two sons Ben, 2½, and John, 5, enjoy a ride in the Bird Sanctuary. They reside at 65 Spring Grove Road.

Literary Treat For Ballardvale

The Ballardvale Library held an open house last Sunday to celebrate the opening of a new branch in the Corner Cupboard building. Ballardvale librarian Ruth Sharpe greeted guests who enjoyed a look at the new library, cookies and punch. On A Positive Note

This week being one of new beginnings and gratitude for the safe return of the American hostages from Iran, let us have commentary on a positive note, such as:

Ballardvale Library

The 'Vale library, closed since last spring due to building problems at the Community Building was reopened in new quarters with appropriate open house ceremonies last Sunday.

The reopening is a tribute to the residents of the 'Vale who agreed to allow the closing and demolition of the Community Center, despite the structure being the last remnant of a community meeting place.

Gaining the library branch was not an easy task.

The 'Vale community group had looked for places to locate the branch library, if only for a reading room, at least something to maintain the identity of the village.

They faced some problems along the way, such as structural difficulties in one of the locations. They expressed a willingness to work with the town in providing this service to the 'Vale residents.

Finally, the town administrators have provided the people of the village with their library, something they can continue to utilize and also have something that is a center for Ballardvale.

Such community spirit is to be applauded.

CARD Program

In keeping with the community spirit, it is nice to see that the Shawsheen area is now eligible for CARD funds, a program which assists in upkeep and renovation of property within an area of a community.

Shawsheen, like Ballardvale, is a section of the town in which the residents have taken pride in maintaining their historic past.

They have also exerted efforts to preserve the residential character of the area still cognizant of the part the giant mill complex played in the overall development of the community.

The area has been designated as a historic district and was so noted with a plaque dedication last year.

Now with the availability of CARD funding, the area can certainly be maintained and the total village atmosphere retained.

Neighborly Concern

And, it is heartening to view the efforts of neighbors in the Wildwood Road area who have banded together to protect their property and themselves.

Following a series of breaks and a brutal beating of a resident of the area in his home, the people got together and asked for the assistance of local police in providing protection for the area.

Working with the police chief and Crime Prevention Officer Joseph Ouellette, the residents are now on a constant alert about anything suspicious. Reports to police are frequent and welcome.

These efforts will undoubtedly lead to less crime activity in the area and is a highly recommended practice for all areas of the town.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago - January 1906

A play has been written by Henry W. Boynton of this town for Miss Julia Marlowe, which has been accepted by her, but will probably not be played before next season, when it will be opened in England. The name of the play is "Guenever," and it is taken from the time of King Arthur, Launcelot, and Guenever. The play will be of especial interest to Andover people, and no doubt many will see it when it appears in Boston.

James Eaton of Cuba Street has been appointed as janitor of the Indian Ridge School in place of Mrs. Alexander Anderson, resigned.

Arthur R. Thompson, late in the employ of W.J. Burns, the tailor, will spend the rest of the winter in the Bermuda Islands.

James C. Sawyer has engaged men to strip the trees on the Phillips Academy grounds of brown-tail moths. They will begin work at once, as in a month the moths begin to hatch.

The warmer shades of gray, smoke and dove, taupe or mole; and the gunmetal shades are in high favor, and there is no question of their continuance in this position during the coming season. Blues are more staple than any other color and, like black and white, are never out of fashion, but each season certain shades lead.

A fire in the tool house in the Spring Grove cemetery has completely destroyed the building this morning. The loss to the town is estimated at about $300 and the personal loss to Superintendent Oliver Vennard is placed at about $100. He had a large supply of tools stored there, including three good lawnmowers. It is said the fire might have been set by a tramp or by skaters returning from Pomp's Pond.

50 Years Ago - January 1931

The following telegram was received at the Townsman office yesterday afternoon: "Washington, D.C. - Treasury Department has decided to purchase for Post Office land of William J. Burns on Main Street near Chestnut Street for $20,000." The lot of land referred to is that at 71 Main St., now occupied by the Andrews house.

"American women have mastered subtle combinations of color in flower arrangements but not design," said Mrs. Alice Kirk Atwater, speaking before the members of the Andover Garden Club at a meeting held Tuesday morning at the Phillips Inn. She also warned against the pitfalls of "flower sandwiching," "equal ranging," and "cross cutting."

Chief Frank M. Smith, when asked to speak on traffic conditions before the monthly supper of the Andover Lions, characterized the 1930 driver as the most careless and reckless in his experience. In reply to a request for suggestions to remedy the difficulty, he recommended that automobiles be made to operate at a speed not exceeding 25 miles an hour.

At the meeting of the school board Tuesday night it was voted to accept the budget as presented before the meeting by the sub-committee on finances. Although no figures in regard to the budget were announced, it was stated that the budget is about the same as last year. The sum appropriated by the town last year for the school budget was $150,355 which was an increase of $1,157 over the previous year, 1929.

A carburetor afire in a truck owned by the Lowell Rendering Company of Woburn Street, North Billerica, was responsible for the sounding of Box 4 at 12:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The vehicle was proceeding along Lowell Street in West Andover when the blaze attracted the driver's attention.

25 Years Ago - January 1956

Some 700 acres of West Andover farm land are now owned or controlled by members of the Bolten family. Newest acquisition, by two real estate trust firms, was the 175-acre Wild Rose farm belonging to Selectman Sidney P. White. John Bolten, Sr. owns the Carson and Kress farms, adjoining the Wild Rose farm.

At press time Wednesday afternoon, the Shawsheen River was threatening to flood the Shawsheen pumping station but Engineer Ralph Preble said there could be no great damage to the system or homes because sewerage would dump directly into the river. The spillway at the Ballardvale dam was also threatened by the overload of water but Preble said the dam would hold.

The board of assessors would give every consideration to an industry purchasing the Shawsheen mills. Selectman-assessor Stafford Lindsay promised this week that he would certainly cooperate in making a new industry welcome to Andover by leaving the present assessment alone.

Board of Public Works Chairman Sidney P. White has predicted that there will be 1000 new homes in West Andover within 10 years. His statement came during a discussion of water storage and distribution problems, including the proposed reservoir on Wood Hill.

Henry Neunzer, the bee hobbyist, was out on Dec. 25 examining the several hives on the property and found the bees to be flying. On warm days in winter, providing it isn't a windy day and the sun is shining, the bees will fly.

An article for $3000 to cover water fluoridation will be acted upon by the voters in March. The board of public works agreed last week that the article should be inserted in the town warrant, following the instructions of town meeting last year. Engineer Ralph Preble said $500 will be needed for equipment, $800-1000 for materials, and the remainder for maintenance.

10 Years Ago - January 1971

Recommended proposals in the town's ambulance service, not involving additional personnel or equipment have been received by the selectmen and turned over to the town manager for implementation.

Employees of Spring Grove Cemetery will be seeking civil service status at the annual town meeting March 1. Petitions are being circulated this week

Film Classic At Gallery On Sunday

The Andover Film Society and the Addison Gallery of American Art will present the D.W. Griffith silent film classic, "Birth Of A Nation," on Sunday, Jan. 25 at 4 p.m. in the Kemper Auditorium on the campus of Phillips Academy, Chapel Avenue (Rte. 28), Andover. The film will be presented in its original tinted color version with the original score. This is the second film in a series of six programs to be shown on successive Sundays through March.

"Birth Of A Nation," quite possibly the most important silent film ever made, recreates one of America's greatest moments in history—the Civil War and its tragic aftermath. Griffith's mammoth work, starring the queen of silent films, Lillian Gish, stands as a veritable textbook of the basic principles and techniques of modern film and has been selected by the International Poll of Critics as one of the ten best films of all time.

A donation will be requested.

SPECIAL WEEKLY

U.S., Soviets do battle over a post-detente villa

By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- A few years ago, when Henry Kissinger was riding high and detente was in full flower, the United States and the Soviet Union bent over backwards to be nice to each other.

But now the pendulum has swung to the right, Ronald Reagan is in the White House, and detente is as dead as a doornail. Accordingly, the two superpowers now squabble over everything. There is a battle going on, for example, over the construction of an American dacha outside Moscow.

Dachas are country estates. In the time of the czars, every nobleman worth his title had at least one dacha where he could go to escape the workaday headaches of court life.

Their communist successors turned out to be proletarians with royal tastes. So they quietly continued the dacha tradition. The Kremlin bigwigs all have country estates where they can retreat from the cares of office.

Not long ago, officials at the American Embassy decided they needed a new dacha in the Russian countryside, where embassy employees could retire to recover from the tensions of life in downtown Moscow.

But the Russians demanded an outrageous sum to build this rustic retreat. So the Americans asked for permission to bring in a prefabricated dacha. The Soviets at first refused, but after some hard-line negotiating, they finally relented.

The American Embassy solicited bids and chose a Finnish firm to construct the pre-fab dacha. But then the cantankerous Russians demanded the ridiculous sum of $5,885 just to hook up the plumbing and electricity.

The embassy was stuck; it had no choice. So the U.S. government will pay the Russians' hookup fee. But our diplomats will demand an itemized bill for plugging in the utilities. As one State Department official swore: "We're going to make the Russians account for every damn dime."

WASHROOM WALTZ: Status in Washington is often measured by the acreage of an official's office or the plushness of the rug beneath his feet. But there is no greater symbol of high office than a bureaucrat's washroom privileges.

The official pecking order can be determined simply by checking who is entitled to a private bath. In fact, there are solemn federal regulations governing bathroom privileges and entitlements.

The Cabinet officers, who head the 13 departments of government, are entitled to their own toilet, sink, vanity and shower. Other officials have Cabinet rank but no department to command. They're entitled only to a toilet, sink and shower -- no vanity.

As you descend to the lower levels, assistant secretaries get only toilets and sinks. The worker bees of the bureaucracy, of course, are obliged to use communal facilities.

But even these lowly bathroom privileges can be disrupted. The convenience of the big-shots always comes first.

Consider the plight, for example, of the employees of the President's Commission on Pension Policy. They occupy a townhouse that is connected to another townhouse. The two adjacent structures share common bathrooms.

But George Bush, then the vice president-elect, moved into the second townhouse. The Secret Service sealed off the second-floor hallway that connected the two buildings.

The pension workers then had to leave their building, cross a courtyard to another federal building and present a security pass to get to the bathroom. Their predicament became even worse when Ronald Reagan moved into the neighborhood. When he was in town during the transition period, the courtyard was also blocked off. This meant the pension employees had to hike more than a block to get relief.

The blocking of this access to the bathroom, incidentally, appears to have been a violation of federal health regulations.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES: Last year, the Coast Guard cutter "Cowslip" was declared surplus and put on the auction block. But shortly thereafter, the Cowslip's sister ship was sunk, so now the Coast Guard wants its ship back. To get it, the government will have to pay several million dollars more than the ship sold for.

-- Without a shot fired in anger, the freezing cold war between the United States and Russia is producing casualties. They are the Russian dissidents who want to emigrate to the West. Only 21,411 Soviet Jews were allowed to leave Russia last year -- down 60 percent from the previous year.

-- When the bills for Ronald Reagan's inaugural come in, they will add up to more than $8 million. To help pay for the lavish affair, the inaugural committee is selling keepsakes -- including the inaugural platform. It will be cut into small pieces, and each hunk will be coated with plastic and sold for $28.

-- A quote from a top-secret CIA report: "Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev's major health problems are cardio-vascular. He has hypertension and arteriosclerotic heart disease. He probably has a pacemaker."

Touring Trek Next At Rafton

The Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club and the Andover Village Improvement Society (A.V.I.S.) will co-sponsor a ski touring and snowshoe hike on Sunday, Jan. 25.

The event will be held at the Harold R. Rafton Reservation. The public is invited and anyone interested should be at the entrance to the trail at 12:30 p.m.

The reservation is reached by going east on Rte. 133 from Rte. 93, one quarter mile, go left on Greenwood Road (lights), then take a left on High Plain Road for one mile. Parking is at the top of the hill.

This reservation comprises 224 acres and is the largest of the A.V.I.S. reservations. It is primarily woodland but contains some open areas, a marsh and a portion of fish brook.

Novice, intermediate and expert groups will be formed for touring the various trails.

Free coffee, hot chocolate and donuts will be provided by A.V.I.S.

If there is inadequate snow cover, the group will hike the reservation.

Leaders of the trek are Phil, Dot and David Dargie, warden of the Harold R. Rafton Reservation.

Warriors Giving Top Efforts In Track

By Kevin Canavan

The Andover High boys' track team has competed in three dual meets so far this year. The first meet, against Methuen, was very close with Andover losing 52-34 to a veteran-filled Methuen team. The luck changed little when Andover met Haverhill, another experienced team, as the score was 51-35. Defeat in each case was only by eight points. This is outstanding, considering Andover has many sophomores and first-year runners on the varsity team. Dick Bourdelaise and Bob Welch are proud of the competitive spirit of the club. Andover will face several more tough opponents in the coming weeks, with Chelmsford and Billerica being the biggest challenges.

Andover vs. Methuen

Against Methuen, Andover's sophomore hurdler, Greg Batten, stunned many people by beating Joe Canyano, a winner of the outdoor league hurdle title last year. Steve Jackson also ran well, getting a close third. Tim Grams then picked up a third in the dash. Jeff Gutermann placed second in the 300 as Methuen took a 22-14 lead. Carl Schwind and John Hevehan, both rookies, took second and third in the two-mile. The 600 yard run had seniors Tim Lacourse and Kevin Canavan chasing another Methuen rabbit (or ranger) as they got second and third. Steve Smith held off Methuen Lemieux in winning the 1000. Smith also placed third in the high jump. Scott Elliot picked up third place. Bob Foley and Rick Desmans, another sophomore, ran behind yet another Methuen runner to take second and third in the mile. Andover's mile relay team of Gutermann, Smith, Canavan, and Lacourse won in an exciting, come from behind performance. Lacourse ran especially well, blazing past Methuen's anchorman to steal the victory.

Andover vs. Haverhill

Haverhill brought a strong team against Andover. Again, Batten and Jackson led off in the hurdles, taking a very close second and third. Grams and Jeff Danzig placed first and third in the dash. Schwind placed third in the two mile. Glen McIntyre, now recovered from the flu, won the 300, followed by Gutermann. Jim Lacourse chased two very good runners to place third in the 600. Steve Smith took second in both the high jump and the 1000.

Mike Lucey got third in the high jump. Tri-captain Mark Robichard threw for a second-place in the shot with a distance of 44'11". Again, Andover's relay team of Gutermann, Smith, Canavan and Lacourse won decisively over Haverhill's top team.

Andover vs. Lowell

Andover finally showed their ability in defeating Lowell. After working out in a bone-chilling cold all week, the team set the cage's track on fire. Carl Schwind opened up with a third in the two-mile. Greg Batten then took the hurdles. Glen McIntire and Jeff Gutermann ran against one of the state's top 300 yard runners, Sousa, and placed second and third. Captain Kevin Canavan led a sweep, the first of three, in the 600, followed by Dave Robinson and Tim Lacourse. Captain Steve Smith led Rick Desmaris and Scott Elliot to victory in the 600. Bob Foley placed third in the mile to finish running events. Smith and Lester McKellan placed second and third in the high jump. Andover's other top relay team of Robinson, Sherman, McIntyre and Elio won easily.

Coach Bourdelaise attributes illness and a tough schedule to Andover 1-2 record. However, Andover has carried on the tradition of being competitors and will continue to do their best. The young team has great potential and hopes to see more victories soon. Most importantly, along with the members of the team who placed in our first meets, the other members are to be praised for braving cold and illness to train and cheer on others.

Nearly the speed of light is the speed at which electricity travels to the home — it can go seven and a half times around the earth in one second.

Concerts

There are concerts Tuesdays at 8 p.m. and Thursdays and Sundays at 4, at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, 280 The Fenway, Boston. Museum donation is requested. Phone 734-1359 for recorded program information.

Andover Girls Victorious

In one of their finest efforts this season, the Andover Girls Varsity edged Chelmsford 55-49 last week at home. The Warriors had several strong performances, highlighted by Heather Thompson's 25 points. Behind coach Joan Axelrod, the girls are playing some very impressive basketball this season. In photo above, senior Pam Adler is fouled as she attempts a shot; below, with a nice soft touch, center Bryna Jones tossed up one of her 12 points (Bryna also added 15 rebounds); and left, Connie Corkery saves the ball from going out of bounds and sets up a Warrior basket.

Warrior Skiers Successful

The Andover High ski team is off to an excellent start. The boys team is undefeated with captain Rick Secord, veterans Eric Teichert, Bob Fraigil, Chris Pope, Barry Mitchell, and sophomores, Ed McEvoy, Rob Retelle, and Mike Clevesy, leading the scoring. The boys are 4-0 with victories over North Andover 106-29, Methuen 112-23, Austin Prep 131-41, and defending Merrimack Valley Ski League champs Haverhill 68-67.

The girls, led by captain Amy Simpon, Carol Reed, Linda Weiner, Vicki Simpson, and Ann Concemi, are 2-2 with wins over North Andover 85-50, Methuen 131-4, and loses to Haverhill 62-73, and defending champ Masconomet 58-77.

Coaches Jerry Schimmel and Gail Kolbe are optimistic about the second half of the season. Next meet is with St. John's on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at Bradford Ski Area.

Make Strong Showing

The racers of the Andover Buddy Werner League battled against the strong Eastern Massachusetts defending State Championship team from Waltham and lost in a meet held at the Prospect Hill Ski Area in Waltham on Sunday, Jan. 18. The final score was Waltham 240, Andover 175.

Making an impressive showing for Andover, the following skiers were ribbon winners. Girls age seven and under - second place, Hilary Recesso; third place, Taylor Simpson; fourth place, Nicole Poisson; fifth place, Amy Heseltine. Boys age seven and under - first place, Justin McCoart; third place, Paul Durant. Girls age eight and nine - second place, Joan Asgerisson; sixth place, Megan Simpson; seventh place, Amy Heislein; eighth place, Heather Koehler. Boys age eight and nine - first place, John Teichert; second place, Brent Raftery; third place, Randy Ying; sixth place, Bill Batchelder.

A can of corn containing 270 calories represents the expenditure of 2,799 calories for growing, harvesting, canning, and transportation, Massachusetts Audubon says.

eight place, Adam Galvin. Girls age 10 and 11 - second place, Cheryl Crawford; fourth place, Shannon Smith; fifth place, Gillian Recesso; eighth place, Kim Heseltine; ninth place, Britt Collins; tenth place, Wendy Ying. Boys age 10 and 11 - sixth place, Mal Galvin; ninth place, Bobby Hughes. Girls age 12 and 13 - fourth place, Brenda Busta; sixth place, Katrina Smith; seventh place, Sally White; ninth place, Karen Reddington; tenth place, Michelle Poisson. Boys age 12 and 13 - third place, John Recesso; sixth place, Bruce Crawford; seventh place, Chris Graff.

In an attempt to return to their winning ways, Andover will host their next race on Sunday, Jan. 25, at the Bradford Ski Area against Sudbury. The starting time for the race will be 9 a.m. All racers should be at the hill by 8 a.m. so that they may register, pick up their bibs and properly study the course.

Practice sessions will continue to be held on Tuesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. at the Bradford Ski Area. In the event of poor hill conditions, the telephone squad will contact everyone to advise of any cancellations.

Family Skating For West

West Elementary P.T.O. will sponsor a family roller skating night on Feb. 9, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Roll-On-America in Lawrence. Tickets are now available on an advance sale basis through West Elementary students. Tickets may also be purchased at the rink on the evening of the skating party as space permits.

PeeWee B Team Danvers League

Andover 5 - Stoneham 1

In defeating previously unbeaten and untied Stoneham, the PeeWee N's moved into a first place tie with them in the Danvers League.

Stoneham started out with a strong offensive effort, threatened on a power play, but Mark Needham, Tom Herling, Dave Riddiford and Mike Nelligan did some excellent penalty killing. Then, a few minutes later, Gibson and Peter Trede combined with the front line of Matt Young, Bill Bruno, and Mark Berberian, on an Andover power play, to provide excellent chances. By the end of the first period both teams were playing even, but near the three minute mark, Stoneham stormed the Andover net and tallied the game's first score.

Andover controlled the rest of the game, dominating in the second period with 4 unanswered goals. Matt Young started things off with an unassisted shot. Then Dave Riddiford and Mike Nelligan converged on the rebound of a Bruno shot with Riddiford tapping the puck home. Young scored his second goal of the night, assisted by Mark Berberian and Tom Herling. And Dan Hagerty had the fourth goal unassisted.

By the third period Andover had worn down the opposition, and it was just a question of controlling the game, which they did well, never letting Stoneham mount a consistent threat. Chris Hansberry was solid in goal, and got good protection from defensemen Gregg Tormey, Peter Trede, Tom Herling and Brian Gibson.

Wilmington League

Andover 5 - Tewksbury 6

A strong Tewksbury team took advantage of several breaks, the last one with less than two minutes to go, and left Andover with a frustrating loss, in a game that could have gone either way. Throughout the contest, the lead changed hands several times, with neither team ever able to get ahead by more than one goal. Andover's game was marked by a string of outstanding individual efforts, but their usual solid team play was a little off, and that with a couple of tough breaks made the difference.

The first bad break came with Andover leading 2-1, and Tewksbury got a partial breakaway. Goalie Tim Adams, who had earlier saved a breakaway, had the play well lined up and the angle taken away. But this time the back checking defenseman made contact with the wing at the last second and the puck changed speed and got redirected, and it slide under for a tying score. When the three players collided, Tim caught a stick, and his teammates and fans had a couple of anxious minutes while he lay on the ice before recovering to finish his half of the game. Chris Hansberry took over goal for the second half and played well.

Later, Tewksbury was putting on heavy pressure in front of the Andover goal, and Dave Riddiford fell on the puck in the tangle, and called for tying up the puck in the crease, and Tewksbury was given a penalty shot, which was successful.

Then with time running out and the score tied at five, Mark Needham rode off a long Tewksbury shot in front and started to swing the net, with everybody set up to break out. But he caught a skate in a groove in the ice and fell heavily into the boards. A Tewksbury forechecker pounced on the loose puck and before Andover could get organized to clear out the charge the winning goal was in the net.

Dan Hagerty had Andover's first goal, finishing off Chris Sapuppo's long rush down the left boards to slide a centering pass across the front. Only 17 seconds after Tewksbury had tied the score, Matt Alden did some impressive stick handling in close, then picked up a rebound of his own shot and rifled it past the goalie to re-establish the lead. This was followed by a great individual rush by Bill Bruno, but he just couldn't get by the entire Tewksbury line. Then, after Tewksbury tied it up and pulled ahead by one, Alden got his second goal, set up by some hard digging by Riddiford and Mike Nelligan to get the puck to him alone in front. Andover went ahead again when Kyle McCabe and Peter Trede worked hard to keep the puck loose at the side of the net, eventually knocking it out in front. There, Riddiford found himself head to head with the goaltender, and after making two good fakes to get him moving, he slid the puck under.

Tewksbury again tied it up and pulled ahead, but Mark Berberian was sprung loose by McCabe and Brian Gibson, and stickhandled around three defenders to set himself up for a clear shot to tie the game again. Defensemen Gregg Tormey and John Gangi played a strong offense-minded game and each had several good moves from the point, in addition to making some good defensive work at the blue line. Gibson and Needham also played a very solid game, and Mark's losing the puck because of a hole in the ice just didn't seem fair. But these teams will meet again, and Andover will have another chance

PeeWee A

Andover 5 - Tewksbury 1

Andover's latest unbeaten streak reached four games on Saturday, Dec. 27, when Tewksbury fell in a Wilmington League game 5-1. It took Andover about a period and a half to get cranked up, but once the A's got it going they took complete control. Nine different players scored a goal or an assist in the game, reflecting the balance which has led to the team's success thus far this season. Goaltender Greg Najjar played very well again for Andover, stopping all but one of Tewksbury's 19 shots while his teammates were peppering Tewksbury with 35 shots.

Tewksbury scored its only goal before the game was a minute old. The score came as the result of some sloppy play in the defensive zone. Andover managed 11 shots on net in the period, only three of which were tough to handle. Paul Gilmartin had two of them and Jamie O'Brien, the third. The rest of Andover's shots were routine board just over a minute into the middle period. Defensemen Matt Shine and David Curtis combined on passes to send David away on the scoring rush and both earned assists on the play. Andover took the lead for good three minutes later when Timmy Donovan poked in the rebound of a tough Jeff McNeil shot for the first of his two goals in the game. The two teams then settled down to play some good two way hockey with each getting some decent scoring opportunities. Mark Neaves had three good bids stopped as he combined with Mosa Kaleel on several good rushes. Defenseman Shannon McCabe was key to Andover's success in keeping Tewksbury off the board in the second period

Andover scored three times in the third period to win going away. Georgie Heseltine scored two of the goals, the first on a nice rush set up by Earl Abdoo's pass and the second on the rebound off a hard Stevie Donovan shot. Timmy Donovan scored Andover's fifth goal and his second of the game when he once again stuffed the rebound of a Jeff McNeil shot by the goalie. Before the game ended, David Young was robbed by the Tewksbury goalie on his attempt to score Andover's sixth goal.

Andover 7 - Charlestown 5

Andover's fourth win in five games (one tie) came on Sunday, Dec. 28, when the A's defeated Charlestown 7-5 in a roller derby special. Charlestown drew 12 penalties in the game, giving Andover the equivalent of a full period power play. Andover scored two power play goals and had 21 shots on net before it was over. Andover's offensive stars were Mosa Kaleel with four goals and two assists, Paul Gilmartin with three assists, and Georgie Heseltine with a goal and an assist. The defensive stars were goalie Kenny Young and defenseman David Curtis who turned in a very solid game.

The first period ended with Andover leading 3-2. Mosa Kaleel scored twice from in front, the first off the rebound of a Paul Gilmartin shot and the second after taking a nice pass from Georgie Heseltine. Andover's other goal in the period was scored by Earl Abdoo who finished off a beautiful setup pass.

Andover scored four times in the middle period to take a commanding 7-4 lead into the third period. Mosa Kaleel completed his hat trick at the 30 second mark to make it 4-2 Andover, taking the rebound of a Jamie O'Brien shot from the slot and snapping it in. Shannon McCabe set up the play and earned an assist by stopping an attempted clearing pass. Georgie Heseltine made it 5-2. 35 seconds later when Matt Shine took a point to point pass, moved into the slot, and fed Mosa Kaleel to the left of the crease. Mosa in turn fed Georgie on the other side and he tucked it in the open side. One minute later, Mosa made it 6-2 with his fourth goal when he took a Paul Gilmartin pass and snapped it under the Charlestown goalie. Careless play by Andover in their own zone gave Charlestown two goals over the next several minutes but Mark Neaves made it 7-4. 21 seconds before the end of the period when he tipped in Timmy Donovan's shot from the right face off circle. Paul Gilmartin earned his third assist of the game on the play. The third period was uneventful save for Charlestown's meaningless goal and a rash of Charlestown penalties. Center Jeff McNeil turned in a fine game for Andover and was instrumental in setting up two plays which led to scores. Andover is now in the upper third of the standings in the Danvers League.

Squirt B Everett 6 - Andover 2

Andover's Squirt B's skated evenly with a very strong Everett club for two periods before giving up three third period goals and falling 6-2. The score was 3-1 entering the final period as Andover was facing a team which had given up only nine goals all season. Everett left the ice knowing that they had been in a tough game. Andover goalies Michelle DiStefano and Michael Murnane continually came up with good saves and defensemen D.J. Camarota and Timmy Sullivan kept the area in front of the net clear of rebounds and traffic.

David Sopp, Danny Iandoli and Gary Bleszinski combined to give Andover consistent offense throughout the game. David scored both of Andover's goals and Gary earned an assist on one of them. Andover's blue line of center Michael DiStefano and wings Todd Roycroft and John Constantine also played well, pressuring the Everett goalie and defense on most of their shifts. Michael Tiberii and converted forward Jonathan Shine turned in excellent games on defense for Andover, helping to contain the high powered Everett offense for most of the contest. After Everett had built the 6-2 lead late in the game, Andover had another offensive flurry as center Eddie Chaisson and wings Randy Moreau and Jimmy Moris kept the puck in the Everett zone for over a minute but could not score.

Duxbury 12 - Andover 1

The Squirt B's hosted Duxbury on Sunday at Phillips Academy and were out-classed 12-1. The visitors are a higher level team than Andover and the results reflect the difference between the two teams. Andover has fielded a Squirt B team which is 75 percent Mites (seven and eight year olds) rather than legitimate Squirts (nine and ten year olds). This year the Squirt B's will take their lumps but will make up for them next year and in later years when the present play against higher level competition will pay off.

The flu season forced the B's to play the dover goalies Michelle DiStefano and Michael Murnane made several stops each but Duxbury was just too talented to keep off the scoreboard. Andover's defensive corps also played well as Jonathan Shine, Michael Tiberii, Danny Iandoli and D.J. Camarota all made several good plays each. Center Todd Roycroft, right wing Randy Moreau, and left wings Jimmy Morris and John Constantine turned in good efforts with a number of rushes which almost led to goals. Winger David Sopp scored Andover's only goal of the game in the third period, when he banged in the rebound of Michael DiStefano's hard shot after Michael had been sent away on a rush by Gary Bleszinski's good pass. The B's next game is on Saturday afternoon in Danvers at 3:10 p.m. against Marblehead.

Marblehead 4 - Andover 3

Andover's Squirt B's lost a heartbreaker on Saturday, Jan. 3, when they saw a 3-1 third period lead vanish. The B's played well enough to win most games but three third period lapses cost them the game.

The game was only 18 seconds old when Timmy Sullivan shot the puck by the Marblehead goalie from the point. Thirty seven seconds later David Sopp took a pass from Todd Roycroft and put it in for a 2-0 Andover lead. Todd and David had combined with linemate John Constantine to put a lot of pressure on Marblehead just before the score. Defensemen D.J. Camarota, Jonathan Shine, Michael Tiberii aided by Michael Murnane and Michelle DiStefano's good goaltending, managed to keep Marblehead off the scoreboard until there were less than two minutes left in the second period.

Andover regained the two goal lead three minutes into the third period when Matty Pothier, Michael DiStefano and Gary Bleszinski were out pressuring Marblehead in the 'Header's zone. Matty scored the goal, converting a setup by defenseman Timmy Sullivan. The two goal lead lasted less than a minute, and the tying goal came two minutes later. With the score knotted at 3-3, center Eddie Chaisson, and wings Eric Cutler, Danny Iandoli and Randy Moreau, all had good shots on net but could not score. Marblehead scored the winning goal with less than three minutes left in the game.

West Parish Alone At The Top

By Rick Harrison

West Parish A stayed alone at the top, but Christ Church A and St. Augustine A kept nipping at the leaders' heels, as all three chalked up victories last week in Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate Gold Division action at the West Junior High gym.

West Parish A hiked its record to 5-0 with a 28-22 conquest of St. Augustine C, while Christ A (5-1) stopped stubborn St. Augustine D, 32-21, and St. Augustine A overcame a slow start to belt Temple Emanuel, 48-25.

The fourth contest saw St. Robert's B remain in title contention with a 21-13 triumph over St. Robert's A.

West Parish A, 28-22

West A pulled out to a 9-6 first quarter lead, scoring seven of those points from the free throw line where it went 7-for-9, and the winners managed to stay several steps ahead of St. Augustine C the rest of the way.

West A enjoyed a 15-12 halftime advantage, stretched it to 21-16 after three, and led 26-16 late in the game before Joe Hart sparked a late St. Augustine surge.

Tim Boudreau guided six West A players into the scoring column with a game-high 13 points, swishing 5-for-5 at the foul line in the opening period and delivering three clutch buckets down the stretch.

Robbie Barnard chipped in 5 points, Rob DiTroia 4, Chris Abell 3, Leo Gravell 2 and Steve Gemmell a free throw.

Gemmell also did a fine job containing Joe Hart man-to-man, while Scott Kelly was strong off the boards for West A which played without one of its top performers (Larry Aiello).

Joe Hart pumped in 10 points for St. Augustine C, and he also pulled down several rebounds, blocked three shots and passed the ballwell.

Steve McGettrick flipped through 7 points, John Morrow 3 and Billy Scanlon 2 to round out the St. Augustine attack.

Also playing well were Paul Zahornsky, Dave Guerrero, Glen Sawyer and Eric Pitochelli.

Christ A, 32-21

This game was closer than the final score indicates, as St. Augustine D trailed by only four points with three minutes left before it ran out of gas.

The score was tied 8-8 at halftime, and C-C led 18-16 after three quarters before Beau Jones took control down the stretch.

Jones tossed in a game-high 16 points, eight of them in the fourth quarter, and contributed 4 markers each were Keith Dauber, Billy Earnshaw, Andy Frost and Doug Rotondi.

Mark Polakow and Chris Scott added solid defensive performances for Christ A, whose lone loss was to St. Robert's B in overtime.

Chris Poor led the St. Augustine D charge with 11 points, John Moosa notched 4, Paul Sheedy 3, Ron Peck 2 and Scott Wallace a free throw.

St. Augustine D hurt itself considerably by hitting only 3-of-14 free throws, missing mostly on the front end of 1-and-1's.

INTRODUCING THE 1981 SAAB SEDAN.

IN TERMS OF EVERYTHING THAT MATTERS, IT'S ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CARS IN THE WORLD.

The new Saab's fuel-injected engine, for example, gives you the thrust of 6 or 8 cylinders but does it with only 4.

And while the Saab certainly looks and feels like a compact, inside you enjoy the room of a mid-sized car.

The 1981 Saab has front-wheel drive, too. However, in the end it won't be the litany of great facts that will make you take the unconventional-looking Saab to your heart.

That will happen when you drive one.

St. Augustine A, 48-25

St. Augustine A fell behind 13-4 in the opening period, but outgunned Temple Emanuel 44-12 the rest of the way enroute to its second consecutive blowout.

Division scoring leader Chris Bartley (95 points) and Tim Scanlon combined talents for 33 points, as Bartley poured through 19 and Scanlon chipped in 14.

Paul Davies stuffed 5 points, Mike Powers 4, and single baskets were notched by Scott McAllister, Joe Hurley and Kevin Walsh.

Scott Kirwin, Jeff Hurley and Paul Kinney also played well.

Temple was again undermanned, missing high-scoring Adam Liberman and Paul Keller, but picking up the slack were Myles Greenberg, Eric Shenker and Mitch Levine with 8, 7 and 6 points respectively.

Marci Lebowitz and Michelle Karas also tossed in buckets for Temple Emanuel.

St. Robert's B, 21-13

St. Robert's (3-2) cruised to an 11-0 first period lead, and the winners then coasted over the final three quarters against St.

Robert's A.

John Perry paced the balanced St. Robert's B effort with 8 points, six of them

Dartmouth, Harvard Stand At 4-0

By Rick Harrison

Dartmouth and Harvard remained on their collision course in the Andover Youth Basketball League Intermediate Division, as both hiked their record to 4-0 following victories in action last week at the West Junior High gym.

Dartmouth rode the clutch shooting of lefty guard John Twomey to its 26-19 conquest of Boston College, while backcourt ace John Perry pumped in 12 points to spark Harvard past Holy Cross, 26-13.

Villanova belted North Carolina State 33-16 in the third game, squaring its season record at 2-2.

The show down between the Big Green and Crimson was scheduled for last night, with the winner taking sole possession of first place prior to the break for the one-on-one and foul shooting contests.

Dartmouth, 26-19

John Twomey broke open a close game by swishing seven of eight free throws during a three-minute stretch in the second quarter, and Dartmouth was able to keep Boston College at arm's length throughout the final half.

The Big Green held a slim 5-4 advantage after one quarter, but fell behind 9-7 midway through the second stanza before Twomey caught fire.

Buckets by Larry Aiello and Matt Geiger boosted the Dartmouth spread to 19-13 after three periods, while Twomey and Aiello combined for seven fourth quarter points to seal the triumph.

Twomey emerged as game-high marksman with 11 points, Aiello pocketed 7, Geiger 4, and Lisa Horgan 2.

Dave Vickers swished a first period technical foul shot, and Steve Gemmell added a third quarter charity toss.

Dave Noyes, Scott DeGregorio, Sue Grogan, Tony Lautieri and Phil Kendall also played well for the Big Green.

Joe Hart, closely guarded by Steve Gemmell throughout the game, pumped in eight points for the Eagles.

Eric Frank and Lydia Wise contributed four points each, Jim Baxter two and Scott Woodruff notched a free throw.

Both teams finished with eight fieldgoals, but Dartmouth won it at the free throw line by hitting 10-of-14 and holding a 10-3 edge over BC.

Other Boston College stalwarts were Peter Derba, John Tateosian, Chris DiClemente, James Flowers and Wendy Carruthers.

Harvard, 26-13

Harvard took a 4-0 lead in the opening quarter on buckets by Beau Jones and Bob commanding 16-4 halftime lead.

Holy Cross closed the gap slightly to 20-11 after three, led by Chris Colsia, Jon Daly and Kurt Burzlaff.

Perry hooped four more points in the final stanza to seal the triumph.

John Perry pocketed 12 points to pace all scorers, while other Harvard leaders were Beau Jones with 6, Bob Manning 4 and Matt Dorsey 4.

Also playing well for the victors, who were forced to compete without Steve Redgate, were Nick Coon, Kyle Marcella, Jay Trepanier and Chris Nelson.

Jon Dayly and Chris Colsia contributed fine all-around games for Holy Cross, canning six and three points respectively, while Burzlaff and Russ Lamontagne added fieldgoals.

Stu Leinson, Geoff Bolan and Andy Lascher were other HC notables.

Villanova, 33-16

Villanova squared its ledger, outscoring North Carolina State 19-8 in the second half to win going away.

Chris Poor ignited the Wildcats' effort with 14 points, Jon Yezerksi swished nine and John Nuzzo eight.

Rounding out the winner's prolific offense were John Twomey and Pat Fleming with free throws.

Mark Geiger and Brian Lannan also played well for the Cats.

BUSINESS PROFILESNorth Andover Auto Body — Professional Service

Snowy, icy road conditions cause many a "fender bender" and worse! Not to worry, for there are professionals in the area who can restore a "like new" finish — North Andover Auto Body, 374 Osgood Street, North Andover, near the entrance to N. A. High School. They can perform wonders on your damaged vehicle.

If your car has been in an accident, take it to North Andover over Auto Body for an estimate. Owner Pete Saalfrank and his men, Dave White, Ronald Fournier, Chris Zaremba and Andy Gagnon are fussy about your car. They do complete auto body work, painting and refinishing, restoring a factory-like finish.

They are professionals in every sense of the word. Pete knows that he puts his reputation on the line with every vehicle his shop handles, so he makes sure the job is done right.

In auto body work, newest modern equipment and experienced personnel make the difference. North Andover Auto Body has the finest equipment available today, plus a crew that are all specialists in auto body work. They have one of the few ultra modern frame machines in this area, which enables them to repair and align any frame or unitized body on the road today. So if you are told your car or truck is beyond repair because the frame is out of alignment, see the experts at North Andover Auto Body.

North Andover Auto Body is really a different kind of auto body shop. It is housed in a neat brick Colonial style building where anyone in your family would be proud to do business. They always give a fair and accurate insurance estimate and are qualified to do the complete job, from start to finish, in their own completely equipped shop.

Even minor dents mar the beauty of your car and reduce its resale value. Get acquainted with North Andover Auto Body soon. Stop in anytime at their shop, 374 Osgood Street, North Andover. Or Tel. 683-6000.

SHERIFF'S SALE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

Salem, November 24th, A.D., 1980

Essex, SS.

Taken on execution and will be sold at Public Auction on Thursday, February 5th, A.D., 1981 at 10 o'clock A.M. at my office, located at Two Salem Green, Salem, Mass., in said County of Essex, all the right, title and interest which the within named Judgment Debtor, Gabriel Porciello and Katherine Porciello had (not exempt by law from attachment or levy on execution) on the 24th day of November, A.D., 1980 at 50 minutes past eight o'clock A.M. being the time the same was seized and taken on execution in and to the following described registered land held under Book U I page 58, to wit:

This is evidence that Katherine Porciello of Andover in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, is the unit owner, in fee simple, as defined in Chapter 183A of the General Laws of that certain condominium unit situate in Andover in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, designated as follows: Unit No. 111 as described in the aforesaid Master Condominium Certificate of Title and in the Master Deed, Document No. 25235 and indicated on Condominium Plan No. 14928H-1 Together with an undivided fractional interest in the common areas as set forth in the Master Condominium Certificate and Master Deed and as they may be or have been lawfully amended under the provisions of said Chapter 183A.

Subject to and with the benefit of all easements as set forth in said Master Condominium Certificate and Master Deed.

And it is further certified that the land described in said Master Condominium Certificate is under the operation and provisions of Chapter 185 of the General Laws, and any amendments thereto, and that the interest of said Katherine Porciello to said unit is set forth under Section 3 of said Chapter 183A, subject, however, to any of the encumbrances mentioned in Section forty-six of said Chapter 185 of the General Laws, and any amendments thereto; which may be subsisting, and subject also to any unregistered variances from the applicable unit all my right, title and interest in a certain condominium unit in Andover, Essex County, Massachusetts, which unit is known and numbered as unit no. 111, Building No. 1, 8 Longwood Drive, Andover, MA. The within-conveyed unit is more particularly described in document #25380 and attached unit plan, as the same are filed with the Land Registration Office of the Northern Registry District of Essex County, reference to which document and plan is herein made for a binding description and plan of the premises conveyed hereby.

Also included in this conveyance is the 2.16% undivided interest in common areas and facilities granted in the above numbered document, and all rights to exclusive use and other benefits conveyed therein. This conveyance is furthermore subject to all easements, rights, reservations, restrictions, agreements and provisions contained in the Condominium Master Certificate, said Master Deed, the Declaration of Trust creating the Andover Terrace Condominium Trust, and the By-laws contained therein, all duly filed with said Land Registration Office, or as the same may be amended of record, and the Rules and Regulations from time to time promulgated thereunder as authorized therein, and including, without limitation, the restrictions set forth in said Master Deed that this Unit may be used only for residential purposes except as prescribed therein. The provisions of said master Deed, the Plans filed therewith, and of said Declaration of Trust and the By-laws contained therein (as the same may from time to time be amended by instrument duly filed with said Land Registration Office) are hereby incorporated by reference and constitute covenants running with the land and are and shall remain binding upon any person or persons having at any time any interest or estate in this Unit and persons claiming through or under them.

Being the same premises conveyed to my wife and myself by deed of Lusalon Construction Corporation dated May 10, 1976, and recorded with said Registry as document number 25380. Subject to a mortgage to the Coolidge Bank and Trust Co., dated and registered May 14, 1976.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alexander W. Stewart, of Andover, Essex County, Massachusetts, to First Essex Savings Bank under its former name of Essex Broadway Savings Bank, a corporation duly established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, having its usual place of business at Lawrence, Essex County in said Commonwealth, dated February 10, 1975, recorded with North Essex Registry of Deeds, Book 1255, Page 667, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing, the same will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION ON THE PREMISES NUMBERED 92 GREENWOOD ROAD, ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS, ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1981, AT TWO O'CLOCK P.M., all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, to wit:

A certain parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on the southwesterly side of Greenwood Road, in Andover, Essex County, Massachusetts, and being shown as Lot No. 6 on plan entitled: "Plan of Land in Andover, Mass., Owned by Elmer O. and Betty S. Peterson, October, 1962", said plan being recorded in the North District Essex Registry of Deeds as Plan No. 4659, said premises being more particularly bounded and described as follows:

NORTHEASTERLY: One hundred fifty (150) feet by Greenwood Road as shown on said plan; SOUTHEASTERLY: Two hundred nineteen and 66/100 (219.66) feet by land now or formerly of Peterson; SOUTHWESTERLY: One hundred thirty (130) feet by land now or formerly of Peterson as shown on said plan; and NORTHWESTERLY: Two hundred eleven and 46/100 (211.46) feet by land now or formerly of Peterson as shown on said plan. Containing 30,120 square feet more or less according to said plan.

The premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes and other municipal assessments and liens, and subject to prior liens and other enforceable encumbrances of record entitled to precedence over said mortgage.

Two Thousand Dollars will be required to be paid in cash or certified check or bank treasurer's check by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale. Other terms will be announced at the sale.

REALTOR

THE COUNTER OFFER

When you find the house you want to buy, what do you do? The first step is to submit an offer to purchase to the owner through your REALTOR. Then comes the anxious wait for the answer. Your REALTOR will return with one of three answers — an acceptance, a rejection, or a counter offer. What is a counter offer?

Basically, it is a combination of the rejection and a new offer by the seller. When the seller demands a higher price, more down payment or different terms, the buyer's original offer is automatically cancelled. This is a tricky area of negotiation and calls for the expert advice of your REALTOR or lawyer.

The reason is this. In effect, the counter offer may burn bridges in its wake. If the buyer refuses the new counter offer the seller can no longer demand that the buyer make good at the original purchase price — because that original offer to purchase had been wiped out with the rejection and counter offer.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punched Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Budget

The manager also plans to cut overtime expenses in the police and fire departments by $15,000 each this year, and by the same amount next year.

Clark estimates that if the town "lives within 2½ and makes (his recommended) budget cuts, the tax rate will go down next year by approximately $1." The tax rate would then be $65 per $1,000 of valuation, down from this year's $66 tax rate.

"Under normal conditions, the tax rate would have gone up by about $2," the manager noted.

The decreased tax rate can be attributed to "growth in the community, rather than 2½," Clark said, citing "dramatic industrial and residential growth in the last couple of years."

Increased revenues from user fees and charges, the result of the selectmen's "aggressive approach to raising non-tax revenues," have also made a difference, the manager pointed out.

The user fees and charges have been increased in response to the four-percent tax cap imposed by the state two years ago, giving Andover "a head start on dealing with 2½," Clark commented.

Clark believes that 2½ can be implemented without "any strong apparent service reductions this year," he said. "There will be some service reductions, but they will be minor and imperceptible to the public."

No "dramatic cuts" have been made in the Memorial Hall Library and Community Service budgets, he indicated.

"I hope that 2½ will be amended in some way before next year," the manager explained. "It would be too bad to rip those dollars (from the library and DCS budgets)" if amendments to the tax-cutting measure make such cuts unnecessary.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

JANUARY 22, 1981

On the other hand, Clark said, "If 2½ is not amended, those will be the only (budgets) left to go into (for further reductions)."

He added that some of this year's efforts to save — such as postponing maintenance of town buildings — will crop up as larger expenses in the future, because needed improvements are being delayed.

The selectmen will probably disagree with some of the manager's budget decisions, Clark said, particularly concerning the public safety budgets. He acknowledged that the need for public safety services, and "police services in particular, has increased in recent years."

But the manager does not expect the selectmen to make drastic changes in his proposed budget after they begin reviewing it next Monday night.

"Last year, they cut less than one percent from the manager's budget," Clark pointed out. "I doubt that they'll find that much to cut this year."

The restraints of Proposition 2½ helped shape a budget too tight for some projects that town officials "would like to do, and that should be done," the manager said.
